Why iCHRA Just Makes Sense

Healthcare has always been individualized, intimate, and important. The problem is that it had always been financed as if it was 'one size fits all'. Finally, there is an employer health plan that allows your employee's to have healthcare as individual as they are and allows them to be empowered consumers for their health and wealth. Join us at iPlanRx in changing the game in a positive way for your company and its greatest asset, your employees!

Exit the 'Risk' Business of Health Insurance

iCHRA is not subject to Medical Underwriting or Pre-existing condition limitations. Your company is no longer concerned about large claims impacting your next renewal.

01

Cost Predictability

You set the budget, define the premium, and adjust your contributions annually to your needs. You no longer get unexpected renewals. And all money is tax-free!

02

Compliance Simplicity

Many of the compliance burdens that have been placed on employers with group health insurance are removed with the iCHRA.

03

Employees Love their Health Plan because They Picked it!

Employees use the defined budget to pick the health plans that best suit their needs. You empower a talent magnet and retention driven health benefit plan.
